OPEN RECREATION POLICY

This policy is to ensure the safety of all open recreation participants.

Open recreation volunteers will submit to a finger-print background check done by the Vermont Department of Public Safety through the local law enforcement office.

Prior to submitting to the background check, the Volunteer must have Select Board approval in order to claim reimbursement for the expenses incurred. Maximum expense reimbursed will not exceed $25.00.

Volunteers must not be on any sex offender registry or abuse registry.

There will be two adult volunteers (with completed background check) during any open recreation; or any activity catering to vulnerable populations.

Volunteers will be responsible for ensuring community center rules are followed by participants.

Volunteers will enforce Community Center building policy during open recreation.

Volunteers will report any issues to Recreation Coordinator; Town Administrator and/or Select board member.

I agree to adhere to this Open Recreation Policy:
